

Japan 2 Sen Rose UPU Koban: Usages and Varieties

In 1877, Japan joined the UPU (Universal Postal Union.) Japan issued the 2 Sen Rose on January 1, 1883 to facilitate the UPU agreement. It was issued in many different shades and perforation varieties. In addition, the Meiji Period (1868-1912) was the beginning of Japan's Imperialist push in Asia, so the 2 Sen Rose can be found with many foreign usages.

2 Sen Rose Mihon and Mint Examples

みほん (Mihon) or Specimen were issued for display at Japanese Post Offices. This one is perf. 11 Left. (Very Rare)

Perf. 12 Strip of 3

Perf. 10

2 Sen Rose with Yokohama Foreign Mail Cancels

1889-1903

1889 thimble, 1890-91 and 1892-93 Meiji Cancels

1894-1898 Cancels

1899-1903 Cancels

2 Sen Rose with Other Foreign Mail Cancels

Postal Card: Kioto to Torino, Italy

Used in Tokyo

Used in Kobe 1892 and 1894 Meiji

Used in Osaka 1900

2 Sen Rose Usages in Foreign Countries

Used in Shanghai 1889 and 1891

Used in Hong Kong 1889, 1893, 1894 and B62

Used in Seoul 1898 with Imprint

Used in Chefoo 1894

Used in Taiwan

2 Sen Rose with Domestic Cancels (KG Cancels)

Cover From Nigata to Ehime

Himeji

Yamaguchi

Onomichi (Hiroshima)

Teraiya-cho (Hiogo)

Kabe-cho (Hiroshima)

Kishiwada (Wakayama)

Izuhara (Nagasaki)

Miyachi (Yamaguchi)

2 Sen Rose with Bota (Cork Cancels)

Cover with Osaka Bota

Tokyo

Osaka

Kobe

Nagasaki

Akita

Yokohama

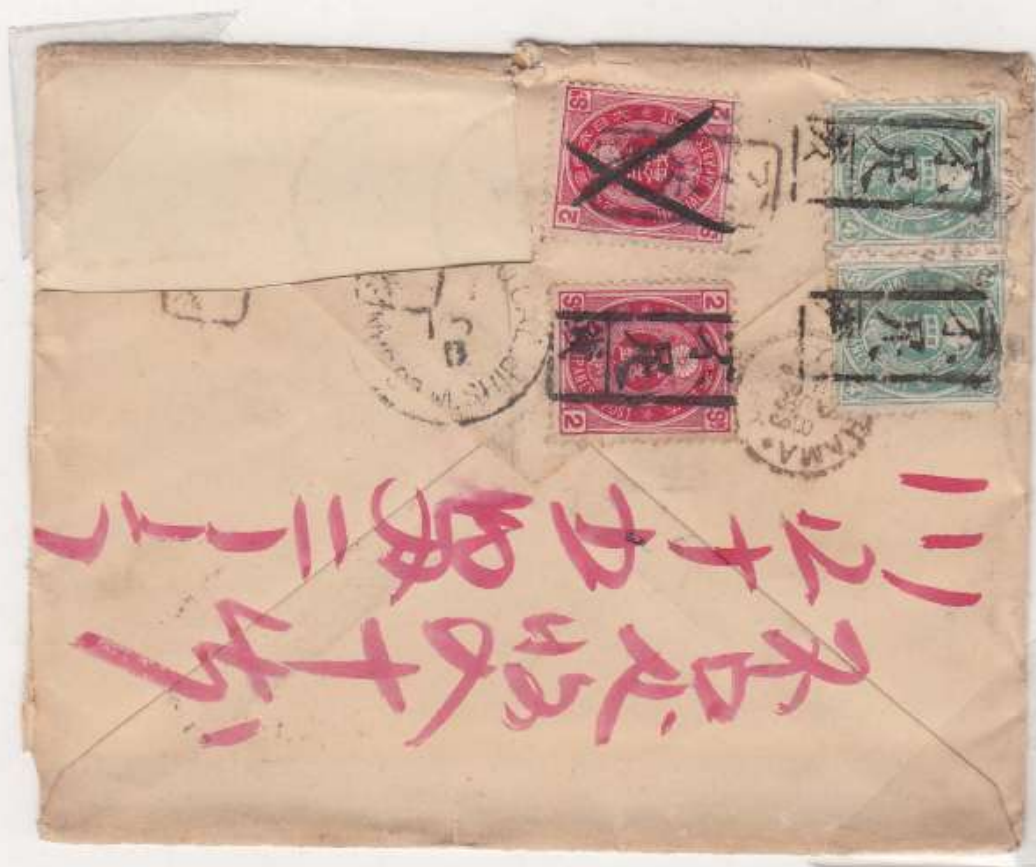

Nigata

Gifu

2 Sen Rose Used as Postage Due

1889 Cover: Tuscola, IL to Osaka (San Francisco and Yokohama)

